ICBL
2024

WHERE EAST MEETS WEST

WHERE ART AND CULTURE THRIVE

AND NATURE IS ALWAYS CLOSE BY

Taipei: The Heart of Asia

❖ Taipei in a nutshell:

- Capital city of Taiwan
- Area: 271.80 km²
- Population: 2.55 million residents (2021)
- Humid subtropical climate
 - Spring (Mar-May) 16-30°C
 - Summer (Jun-Sep) 27-35°C
 - Autumn (Oct-Nov) 20-28°C
 - Winter (Dec-Feb) 14-21°C
- Excellent air connections to major cities in Asia, Europe, and North America

A Warm Welcome to ICBL 2024

6

- ❖ Taipei is honored to welcome the ICBL community in 2024 to attend the 64th ICBL conference, and looks forward to organizing a range of satellite events and activities in the run-up to the conference, supported by:
 - National Taiwan University, the top university in Taiwan
 - The Academia Sinica, the national academy of sciences
 - A robust and motivated community of bioscience researchers and students
 - A world-leading ICT industry
 - A rising biotech industry

Proposed Conference Date

❖ Considering that the ICBL conference is traditionally held in autumn, and after taking into account the climate of Taipei, the following dates are proposed for the ICBL 4-day program in 2024:
